

PARENTAL PERMISSION FORM

This must be turned in Friday, June 20th

Children and/or teenagers participating in church activities that involve traveling extensively, traveling outside of the greater metropolitan area, or being away from home overnight are to be provided with "Parental Permission Forms" that must be signed and returned to the leader of the sponsoring class or church organization before the activity. The use of the "Parental Permission Form" represents a good-faith effort on the part of the church to keep parents fully informed and to provide the proper care for the children and/or teenagers.
